Leader of Outdoor Education
Salary: Grade 5 (£32,026 – £35,109 actual salary)
Term time plus 5 weeks (44 working weeks a year)
Start date: January 2027
Bohunt School, Liphook

Bohunt School, part of Bohunt Education Trust, is seeking a dynamic, highly organised and experienced individual to lead our outstanding Outdoor Education programme.

The successful applicant will have a strong working knowledge of outdoor education, alongside previous experience of instruction in an outdoor environment. They will be a motivational and personable instructor, able to stimulate a passion for outdoor education in our pupils. They will have responsibility for the leadership and development of the school's outdoor education programme, which includes bushcraft/outdoor living skills, "big expeditions", adventure-based learning and a substantial Duke of Edinburgh's Award programme.

An enhanced role may be available for the right candidate, including Trust-wide responsibility for the Duke of Edinburgh Award programme, with additional remuneration reflecting these responsibilities.

This is an exciting time to join Bohunt School as we seek to build on the excellent current provision within the school, cementing the place of outdoor education as fundamental for developing leadership, confidence, teamwork and communication in our pupils. This is a permanent, full-time support staff role, which will require the appointee to commit fully to the life of the school during term time, and to offer flexibility for running a small number of trips during the school holidays and/or weekends.

Bohunt school is a vibrant and ambitious 11–18 secondary school located in attractive, open country on the edge of Liphook (40 miles from London) with easy links to the A3 between Guildford and Portsmouth. Our most recent Ofsted inspection recognised the school's Outstanding provision for Behaviour and Attitudes, as well as Personal Development. This reflects the calm, purposeful environment we have created, alongside our deep commitment to developing confident, well-rounded young people. Our highly successful and thriving Sixth Form was also judged to be Outstanding. Staff benefit from working in a school where students are respectful, engaged, and ready to learn - allowing you to focus on what matters most: great teaching and nurturing relationships.

Bohunt Education Trust is committed to safeguarding and promoting welfare of children and young people and requires all staff and volunteers to share and demonstrate this commitment including through a disclosure and barring service check at enhanced level. We are committed to equality of opportunity for all staff and applications from individuals are encouraged regardless of age, disability, sex, gender reassignment, sexual orientation, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief and marriage and civil partnerships.
