

Institute for Outdoor Learning

Supporting, developing and promoting excellent practice in learning through outdoor experiences

Press Release

The Institute for Outdoor Learning has announced details of it's 2006 National Conference.

With the theme of 'Is Leadership Possible, When Regulations Rule?' the conference will take place on Saturday April 1st at the Leadership Trust, Ross on Wye.

The conference is a packed programme with a vast array of workshops and sessions with something for everyone.

Delegates are welcome from all areas of the world of outdoor learning and there are special rates for members of IOL themselves as well as NAFSO.

The keynote Speaker will be Simon Waring of Outward Bound Trust and the After Dinner Speaker will be Roger Orgill.

14 Workshops led by outstanding presenters from the world of outdoor learning feature an array of topics to suit everyone. They include:

- Leadership in a Major Accident Crisis
- Going Global in the Outdoors
- Theatre of Adventure
- Professional Development in the Outdoors
- Development Training for Post 16 year olds
- Taking College Students to the South Pole
- How to Achieve Eco Centres for your Establishment
- The Effect of Rules & Regulations on Ourselves
- Transformational Leadership Development
- Bridging the Gap between HE/FE & Employers
- Woodland & Forest Schools
- Professional Development in the Outdoors
- Perception & Observation of Students
- Leading Caving Groups & Conservation Issues

We are delighted that our venue will be the unique and fantastic setting of the famous facilities of hosts, and IOL Conference sponsor, the Leadership Trust, near Ross-on-Wye.

There will be the chance to use the wonderful accommodation at the venue for the Saturday night and enjoy the recreation events lined up on the Sunday.
