

First Aid Training

Outdoor Emergency First Aid and Incident Management

Do you work with groups in the outdoors?
Can you look after your friends if anything happens to them?
Do you need to revalidate your first aid certificate?

Suitable for; ML, SPA, BCU, RYA, BOF, MIA, MIC, School journey leader, MIDAS drivers, Duke of Edinburgh leaders, Countryside Rangers, Ecologists

Date	Location
2007
September 14th & 21st	Kendal
November 8/9th	Kendal
December 6/7th	Keswick
2008
January 10/11th	Kendal
January 24/25th	Keswick
February 21/22nd	Minehead, Somerset
March 15/16th	Kendal
March 29/30th	Guilford, Surrey
July 17/18th	Keswick

Course fee £110

For more information or to book

www.cory-jones.com

Cory Jones on: 07787 526 299 or at coryjones2000@yahoo.co.uk

Course participants will receive a certificate valid for 3 years.

HSE Provider Number 1670/96

Outdoor Emergency First Aid and Incident Management courses

Focuses on managing incidents both on-site and away from your base.

Course contents;

Assessment of casualty
Accident procedure
Bleeding & Shock

CPR
Treatment of sprain and strains
Minor Fractures & injury
Head, torso injury & treatment
Medical emergencies
Hypo & Hyperthermia
Bites and Stings
Triage
Incident management
Practical scenarios indoors and outdoors
What do I do if I am remote?

Trainers for these courses follow a nationally approved programme to deliver fun, interactive and relevant training for specific groups of workers.

This is a 16 hours course accredited by Qualification and Curriculum Authority (QCA) and is listed on the National Qualifications Framework (NQF) at Level 2. Cory Jones Associates is approved by the Health and Safety Executive (HSE), through IT, as a recognised First Aid provider as part of their First Aid Approvals & Monitoring Section (FAAMS). Approval number 1670/96.

Note if you only require an 'Appointed Person' first aid qualification you only need undertake day 1 of any of the training courses listed overleaf, to receive that award and a certificate valid for three years. Only day course costs £60.

www.cory-jones.com

Contact: 07787 526 299 or coryjones2000@yahoo.co.uk

HSE Provider Number 1670/96