

Jim Cain Workshop

One awesome afternoon and evening of Teamwork and Teamplay

Monday 30th June 2008

Venue: Lindley Educational Trust – Hollowford Centre

You are invited to join author and teambuilding expert Dr. Jim Cain for a hands on session of activities specifically designed to build unity, community, connection and teamwork with the audiences you serve.

Jim will present dozens of simple to apply, portable activities including many from his two newest books, A Teachable Moment and Teambuilding Puzzles, and some classics from Teamwork & Teamplay and The Book on Raccoon Circles (all available from the IOL bookshop). Explore multiple intelligence learning styles, activities with minimal props, processing and debriefing techniques and team activities that work from the classroom to the boardroom.

This is one workshop that you don't want to miss, packed full of the latest and greatest techniques, ideas and activities for teams. For a flavour of the day have a look at the downloadable articles, activities and information on <http://www.teamworkandteamplay.com/>

We suggest you book early to avoid disappointment!

Lindley are sponsoring this event and as we believe Jim brings a lot to the UK and we want as many people to benefit as possible.

Thank you for your interest in this workshop. To confirm your place, please send us your name and cheque for the full amount just £15.00 per person to:

Hollowford Centre
Castleton
Hope Valley
Derbyshire
S33 8WB

Please make cheques payable to 'Lindley Educational Trust'
(this even includes refreshments)

Directions are available from <http://www.hollowford.org/>

For further details contact vanessa@hollowford.org or call 01433 620377