

APIOL Badge seen at 'Buck' House

With cucumber sandwiches and tea it was a 'fabulous day' for IOL Executive Member and APIOL holder Mark Leather.

To celebrate 50 years of the D of E Award he attended a special garden party at Buckingham Palace (his partner Amanda puts 60 kids a year through at her school). Mark is himself a Gold Award holder and believes in the value of the scheme for teenagers, 'if not the paperwork and rules'.

Mark proudly wore his APIOL badge as a talking point.

(by the way Mark - that's one of the most excellent cheesy photos ever submitted)
