Reporting to:	Head of Adventurous Training	Location:	Halton Training Camp, Halton Road Lancaster LA2 6LW

Job Description

Purpose of the Post

The Cadet Centre for Adventurous Training (CCAT) is the Army Cadets National Adventurous Training (AT) centre of excellence. CCAT has two main delivery centres, Capel Curig Training Camp in North Wales which includes the Headquarters, and Halton Training Camp in Lancaster. CCAT delivers an annual programme of Mountaineering, Paddlesport, Mountain Biking, Caving and Snowsport National Governing Body (NGB) accredited pathways leading to coach, instructor and leader qualifications for Army Cadets aged 15 plus and their adult volunteers.

CCAT also delivers a broad range of national Army Cadet overseas expeditions and a programme of concentrations from their partner centres in Scotland, southern England Norway and Bavaria.

The post holder will be responsible for the day to day management of the CCAT Halton Training Centre in accordance with current legislation and the delivery of training in line with Army Cadet policies and NGB guidelines.

From time to time the post holder will be required to travel supporting the delivery of UK and overseas AT concentrations and expeditions.

The incumbent will also be required to work flexible hours including some evenings, Bank holidays and weekends to facilitate training.
